- "Where are you going, little girl?" The poor child did not know that it was dangerous to stop and talk with the Wolf, and she said:—
"I am going to see my grandmother, and carry her a cake and a little pot of butter from my mother."
"Does she live far off?" asked the Wolf.
"Oh, yes. It is beyond that mill, at the first house in the village."

- When they arrived at the palace, the doors opened of themselves, sweet music was heard, and they found an elegant supper prepared. As soon as they had refreshed themselves, the Beast entered, and said in a mild tone, "Beauty, did you come here willingly to take the place of your father?" "Yes, sir," she answered in a sweet but trembling voice. "So much the better for you," replied the Beast.
